My Army Record

1861—Enlisted at Omaha, Nebraska Territory, November 12.

1862—Mustered at Benton Barracks: St. Louis, Mo., and assigned to Company H, Curtis Horse, Jan. 9. Promoted to Commissary Sergeant Feb. 1; Q. M. Sergeant May 1, and First Sergeant Sept. 1. Engaged in both battles at Fort Donelson and at Clarksville, Tenn., Hopkinsville, Ky., and a number of skirmishes, scouting in Kentucky and West Tennessee.

1863—Engaged in battles at Guy's Gap, June 25; Sugar Creek Oct. 8; and a number of hard skirmishes and fights with the forces under Confederate Generals Wheeler and Roddy.

1864—Re-enlisted Company H, Fifth Iowa Veteran Volunteer Cavalry. Engaged in all the hard fought battles on the Rosseau Raid, July 4-18, and the McCook raid July 26-31, where we lost seventy per cent. of the regiment.

Slightly wounded and taken prisoner at the battle of Flint River, Ga., Aug 31. Escaped at Griffin Sept. 1st; recaptured Sept 9; escaped from Andersonville prison Sept. 27; recaptured and escaped from Macon prison, and reported to General Sherman at East Point, Ga., Oct. 2.

Engaged in battle at Nashville Dec. 15-16, and spent Christmas week in the mud and rain chasing Hood's army across the Tennessee river. Promoted and commissioned Captain of Co. H, 5th Iowa Cavalry Dec. 20, and assigned to duty as such Dec. 26.

1865—On the Wilson raid, which left Chickasaw Landing, Ala., March 22, and arrived at Macon, Ga., April 24.

During this raid we were engaged in many skirmishes, and the battles of Elyton, Montevallo, Ebenezer Church, Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, and Columbus and Macon, Ga. Mustered out of service at Nashville, Tenn., August 11.
